

News Release

CONTACT:

Michael Hofstein, EuroPacific Films

+1.323.702.8502

MICHAEL HOFSTEIN ELECTED TO AFPF BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Paris, France (June 26, 2016) – EuroPacific Films’ President Michael Hofstein was recently voted by the AFPF (Association Française de Production de Films) to serve on the organization’s Board of Directors. Michael will currently be the only America with a seat on the Board.

“Thank you for the nomination and to all who voted for me for the Board of Directors for Association of Film Producers in France,” stated Michael Hofstein. “As a newly elected Board Member, I am available for all to help advance our cause for producing movies in France and beyond.”

About AFPF

Based in Paris, France, the AFPF - a self-supported organization - firmly supports independent productions and protects the existence of innovative programs, renewal of creativity, support to filmmakers and economic development for French filmed productions.

True to the spirit of Anatole Dauman, Rene Thevenet and Louis Duchesne, claiming more than ever its vocation as “incubator” for new players in the profession, the AFPF unites producers of yesterday, today and tomorrow.

More information can be found on their website at <http://www.afpf.net/>

About EuroPacific Films

EuroPacific Films is a production company focused on creating international features and short films, and one of the founders of le Cinéma Résistant, a growing movement of filmmakers striving to make commercially successful artistic movies.

For more information on EuroPacific Films, visit www.europacificfilms.com or call +1.323.702.8502.

###